

The Write Stuff

"Susan was overflowing with information that will help my students immediately. She presented so many great pieces of information. This workshop was genuinely one of those, 'you had to be there to believe it' workshops."

–Andrew Seigrist, PhD.,
Principal, Blue Ridge ISD

This seminar meets requirements for 6 hours of continuing education as required by state licensing boards. Retain your certificate of completion and course outline for verification as required by your board. Contact your state board for specific filing instructions.

Susan Thompson, OTR

is a licensed Occupational Therapist with over twelve years of experience in school and pediatric therapy. Prior to becoming an occupational therapist, Ms. Thompson was a teacher in the public schools. Susan worked as an Occupational Therapist for the Lewisville (Texas) Independent School District for ten years and served as the Fine Motor Coordinator for that district. She is the creator and author of the fine motor program, Handy Learning. Handy Learning has been implemented in over 200 classrooms. Ms. Thompson is a published author and a guest lecturer at school districts and universities.

Visit Susan's website at:
www.handylearning.com

Handy Learning
Seminars, Inc.

Handy Learning
Seminars, Inc.

The development of fine motor skills and handwriting in young children

The Write Stuff

- Understand stages of hand development
- Recognize and apply pre-writing skills
- Define and identify the "Write Stuff": Components for developing good handwriting
- Discover engaging and effective therapeutic fine motor activities that support the academic curriculum, IEPs and OT related goals
- Leave this seminar with fresh ideas and renewed inspiration!

